

THE DAILY NEWS.

The Official Organ of the City.
WEDNESDAY.....NOVEMBER 8, 1876

PUBLISHED IN
The News Building, No. 5. Martin Street.

TERMS:

ADVERTISING RATES.—For square (ten lines, Nonpareil) first insertion $1.00, each subsequent insertion 50 cents. No advertisement inserted for less than $1.00. Contracts for advertisements of any space or time can be made at the News counting-room.

CONTRACTORS will positively not be allowed to exceed their space, or advertisements other than their legitimate business, except by paying specially for the same.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—Daily, one year, $5.00; six months, $3.00; three months, $2.00. Weekly, one year, $1.00; six months, 75 cents. Invariably in advance.

CIRCULATION.—THE DAILY NEWS has the largest daily circulation in the State, and over double the circulation of any other daily in Raleigh.

The combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly NEWS is nearly 5,000, and reaches more readers than any other paper in North Carolina.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Each subscriber will see plainly printed on the yellow label, on which his name is printed, the date when his subscription will expire. Subscribers desiring to renew will do so in time to avoid long delay in getting the paper. Any subscriber failing to receive a copy of his paper will confer a favor by notifying this office.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but a guarantee of good faith.

We cannot, under any circumstances, return rejected communications, nor can we undertake to preserve manuscripts.

All Communications should be addressed, simply
THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

A RETROSPECT OF THE CANNVAS.

The campaign which closed on yesterday, will stand in history as one of the most remarkable this country has ever experienced. It was almost unprecedented for the vigor with which it was conducted, and the momentous nature of the issues involved. It must take rank with the famous campaigns of 1832, 1840 and 1860. If Tilden has been elected, the republicans upon a new career, bright with promise for the whole nation, but especially for the South. But if it be Hayes who has won the glittering prize of the Presidency, the day for the redemption of the Southern States from misrule, and the hour for the regeneration of an ill-governed and sorely distracted Union, are yet far off. For the third time, a people longing for the sunshiny paths of peace, will have to turn away from the fields of anticipated joys, as the children of Israel when they first beheld the land of Canaan, and plunge again into a wilderness of disappointment, gloom, and uncertainty.

This canvas has disclosed in more definite outlines and in stronger colors than ever, the true character and ultimate designs of the Republican party. The mask of hypocrisy has been torn from it, and it stands out to view in all its "naked ugliness"—an enemy to the Constitution; an opponent of all measures of reform, of reconciliation and of retrenchment; an unscrupulous foe to the white people of the South, and to all their dearest interests.

The main object in the Republican canvas was to arouse the prejudices and hatreds of the men of the North against the men of the South; to excite into new life passions that should sleep over issues that are dead. And in the South their purpose was to set the old Union man against the Secessionist; the skulker against the patriot; the deserter against the gallant soldier; who had his duty faithfully in the camp and on the field. And still worse, they beat every effort to fire the negro heart against the white race; to bring on collisions between men living at peace with each other, and involve, for their base partisan purposes, the whole country in the horrors of race conflicts.

What could have been more diabolical than those lines of policy? And how can the leaders who incited the mischief which has so often since June ended in bloodshed, escape the general verdict that they are murderers at heart? What can they say against the charge that they are enemies to the peace, the happiness, and the prosperity of the land?

The arousing of sectional and race hatreds were not the only diabolical than those lines of policy? And how can the leaders who incited the mischief which has so often since June ended in bloodshed, escape the general verdict that they are murderers at heart? What can they say against the charge that they are enemies to the peace, the happiness, and the prosperity of the land?

The Supervisors of Election yesterday went about eager for somebody to do something that they might exercise a little of that brief authority wherewithal they were dressed up. "Busted, and where's the man who'll step upon me confound it?"

At the time the inside of this paper goes to press nothing definite is known, as to results of the election. For the returns, particulars of the election, &c., we refer our readers to the Journal and Telegraph page.

The resistance to the police by the negroes and their white leaders Monday night in this city, &c., for thorough investigation and prompt punishment.

At the hour of closing this page, the election news is not received in favorable. We believe the victory has been won. We refer the reader to the telegraphic news.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.
Whatever may have been the result of the contest of yesterday, whether defeat or victory, it is certain that the Democratic party of North Carolina—like white men—all who wished for the triumph of right principles, owe a debt of gratitude to the Chairman and the Secretary of the State Executive Committee, General William R. Cox and Capt. Admett A. Ashe. The work of that Committee, by common consent, deserved mainly upon these two gentlemen. From the opening of the campaign, until its close, with the exception of the news last night, they labored day and night, week in and week out, with a zeal, an energy, an untiring, indefatigable perseverance, worthy of the highest commendation. They had drawbacks to contend with, difficulties to overcome emergencies to meet, little known or appreciated by the public. But in the face of all discouragements, and undeterred by the most formidable obstacles, they worked on, in the execution of the plan of the campaign, with unceasing, unremitting application, and sometimes at great personal sacrifice.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Each subscriber will see plainly printed on the yellow label, on which his name is printed, the date when his subscription will expire. Subscribers desiring to renew will do so in time to avoid long delay in getting the paper. Any subscriber failing to receive a copy of his paper will confer a favor by notifying this office.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.—

We cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but a guarantee of good faith.

We cannot, under any circumstances, return rejected communications, nor can we undertake to preserve manuscripts.

All Communications should be addressed, simply
THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

A RETROSPECT OF THE CANNVAS.

The campaign which closed on yesterday, will stand in history as one of the most remarkable this country has ever experienced. It was almost unprecedented for the vigor with which it was conducted, and the momentous nature of the issues involved. It must take rank with the famous campaigns of 1832, 1840 and 1860. If Tilden has been elected, the republicans upon a new career, bright with promise for the whole nation, but especially for the South. But if it be Hayes who has won the glittering prize of the Presidency, the day for the redemption of the Southern States from misrule, and the hour for the regeneration of an ill-governed and sorely distracted Union, are yet far off. For the third time, a people longing for the sunshiny paths of peace, will have to turn away from the fields of anticipated joys, as the children of Israel when they first beheld the land of Canaan, and plunge again into a wilderness of disappointment, gloom, and uncertainty.

This canvas has disclosed in more definite outlines and in stronger colors than ever, the true character and ultimate designs of the Republican party. The mask of hypocrisy has been torn from it, and it stands out to view in all its "naked ugliness"—an enemy to the Constitution; an opponent of all measures of reform, of reconciliation and of retrenchment; an unscrupulous foe to the white people of the South, and to all their dearest interests.

The main object in the Republican canvas was to arouse the prejudices and hatreds of the men of the North against the men of the South; to excite into new life passions that should sleep over issues that are dead. And in the South their purpose was to set the old Union man against the Secessionist; the skulker against the patriot; the deserter against the gallant soldier; who had his duty faithfully in the camp and on the field. And still worse, they beat every effort to fire the negro heart against the white race; to bring on collisions between men living at peace with each other, and involve, for their base partisan purposes, the whole country in the horrors of race conflicts.

What could have been more diabolical than those lines of policy? And how can the leaders who incited the mischief which has so often since June ended in bloodshed, escape the general verdict that they are murderers at heart? What can they say against the charge that they are enemies to the peace, the happiness, and the prosperity of the land?

The arousing of sectional and race hatreds were not the only diabolical than those lines of policy? And how can the leaders who incited the mischief which has so often since June ended in bloodshed, escape the general verdict that they are murderers at heart? What can they say against the charge that they are enemies to the peace, the happiness, and the prosperity of the land?

The Supervisors of Election yesterday went about eager for somebody to do something that they might exercise a little of that brief authority wherewithal they were dressed up. "Busted, and where's the man who'll step upon me confound it?"

At the time the inside of this paper goes to press nothing definite is known, as to results of the election. For the returns, particulars of the election, &c., we refer our readers to the Journal and Telegraph page.

The resistance to the police by the negroes and their white leaders Monday night in this city, &c., for thorough investigation and prompt punishment.

At the hour of closing this page, the election news is not received in favorable. We believe the victory has been won. We refer the reader to the telegraphic news.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Carl Schurz left Missouri in disgust about two years ago, because the Democracy of that State would not elect him United States Senator, and located in New York in the hope of accomplishing in that State what he could not attain in Missouri. The distinguished orator has now left New York and gone back to St. Louis, to try his luck there again.

The party managers in Philadelphia are making vigorous assaults upon the list of taxables in that city. So far there have been strucken from the lists on Democratic petitions, 8,483; on Republican petitions, 559. This is exclusive of the names marked on the lists of voters with a cross, indicating that the parties have either died or removed from the divisions since the extra assessment.

Philadelphia Correspondent Baltimore Gazette: "I saw Governor Joel Parker, of New Jersey, to-day, and he assured me that the radicals would have no show outside of west and south Jersey. He is confident that his State will give Tilden at least twelve thousand majority. There are everywhere evidences that the people desire a change in the national administration, and there are folks who talk now of Tilden having a clean sweep."

Hon. John B. Gordon, United States Senator from Georgia in a letter to the New York Tribune, corrects the misrepresentations of a correspondent of that paper in regard to Gen. Hampton and the white people of South Carolina. He denies as charged by this correspondent, that Gen. Hampton was a "fire-eater of fire-eaters." On the contrary, Senator Gordon shows that he was one of the few men in South Carolina who opposed to the very last committing the destiny of his State to secession.

The World says: "The congressional contest grows more favorable for the Democrats each day." They will gain, it adds, some two or three members in the State. As to the general contest in the State it says:

"As the day of election approaches, the Democracy are more confident of victory and the Republicans more disheartened. The latter have made it a campaign of slander and lies beyond any canvas of modern times. Stories without number have been invented, from day to day, magnified, to be finally exploded to the injury of the inventors. The last was the rebel claims story."

Mr. Zachariah Chandler, chairman of the republican national committee, issued an address to the republicans of the United States, in which he claims the spontaneous and enthusiastic uprising of the Northern people within the last few days leaves no doubt about the election of Hayes and Wheeler by a large majority of electoral votes. He claims for the Republican ticket, amongst others, the states of New York, New Jersey, the three Pacific coast States, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Louisiana and a good fighting chance for Indiana." He says: "The republicans of the country have only to perform their full duty and every man go to the polls and the triumph of Hayes and Wheeler will be overwhelming." On the other hand the Philadelphia Times believes that Mr. Chandler is whistling to keep his courage up, and says it must be confessed that "the spontaneous and enthusiastic uprising" for Hayes and Wheeler of which Mr. Chandler speaks is not yet visible to the naked eye.

And they will do it in this way: No matter how manifest it may be that Louisianians have voted for Tilden, Hayes who has won the glittering prize of the Presidency, the day for the redemption of the Southern States from misrule, and the hour for the regeneration of an ill-governed and sorely distracted Union, are yet far off. For the third time, a people longing for the sunshiny paths of peace, will have to turn away from the fields of anticipated joys, as the children of Israel when they first beheld the land of Canaan, and plunge again into a wilderness of disappointment, gloom, and uncertainty.

This canvas has disclosed in more definite outlines and in stronger colors than ever, the true character and ultimate designs of the Republican party. The mask of hypocrisy has been torn from it, and it stands out to view in all its "naked ugliness"—an enemy to the Constitution; an opponent of all measures of reform, of reconciliation and of retrenchment; an unscrupulous foe to the white people of the South, and to all their dearest interests.

The main object in the Republican canvas was to arouse the prejudices and hatreds of the men of the North against the men of the South; to excite into new life passions that should sleep over issues that are dead. And in the South their purpose was to set the old Union man against the Secessionist; the skulker against the patriot; the deserter against the gallant soldier; who had his duty faithfully in the camp and on the field. And still worse, they beat every effort to fire the negro heart against the white race; to bring on collisions between men living at peace with each other, and involve, for their base partisan purposes, the whole country in the horrors of race conflicts.

What could have been more diabolical than those lines of policy? And how can the leaders who incited the mischief which has so often since June ended in bloodshed, escape the general verdict that they are murderers at heart? What can they say against the charge that they are enemies to the peace, the happiness, and the prosperity of the land?

The arousing of sectional and race hatreds were not the only diabolical than those lines of policy? And how can the leaders who incited the mischief which has so often since June ended in bloodshed, escape the general verdict that they are murderers at heart? What can they say against the charge that they are enemies to the peace, the happiness, and the prosperity of the land?

The Supervisors of Election yesterday went about eager for somebody to do something that they might exercise a little of that brief authority wherewithal they were dressed up. "Busted, and where's the man who'll step upon me confound it?"

At the time the inside of this paper goes to press nothing definite is known, as to results of the election. For the returns, particulars of the election, &c., we refer our readers to the Journal and Telegraph page.

The resistance to the police by the negroes and their white leaders Monday night in this city, &c., for thorough investigation and prompt punishment.

At the hour of closing this page, the election news is not received in favorable. We believe the victory has been won. We refer the reader to the telegraphic news.

The resistance to the police by the negroes and their white leaders Monday night in this city, &c., for thorough investigation and prompt punishment.

At the hour of closing this page, the election news is not received in favorable. We believe the victory has been won. We refer the reader to the telegraphic news.

The resistance to the police by the negroes and their white leaders Monday night in this city, &c., for thorough investigation and prompt punishment.

At the hour of closing this page, the election news is not received in favorable. We believe the victory has been won. We refer the reader to the telegraphic news.

GUNS AND PISTOLS.

311 BROAD ST.

The Cardinal will be divided among the members of his family. His collections of gems, antiquities, works of art, etc., are bequeathed to the Vatican Museum.

SECRETED ARMS.

MURKIN, La., Nov. 7.—Col. Hale, United States Army, discovered a large number of arms secreted in the house of V. Moore, colored.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Alabama—Daniel Worth.

Alaska—E. L. Vaugan.

Arizona—S. I. Banas.

Arkansas—Joseph Tied.

Arkansas—W. J. Jarvis.

Arizona—D. S. Lovell.

Arkansas—D. S. Lovell.

Arkansas—J. W. Wilson.

Arkansas—E. H. Harris.

Arkansas—J. M. Hough.

Arkansas—J. R. Abbott.

Arkansas—W. V. Goffroy.

Arkansas—C. C. Cawell.

Arkansas—Dr. Young.

Arkansas—J. M. Morris.

Arkansas—R. J. Powell.

Arkansas—G. S. Rountree.

Arkansas—Clay—W. H. McLure.

Arkansas—R. McBrayer, Lemuel Hoyle.

Arkansas—M. V. Richardson.

Arkansas—John A. Jackson, F. M. Simons.

Arkansas—I. W. Godwin, Geo. M. Ross.

Arkansas—Currituck.

Arkansas—Dare.

Arkansas—M. H. Pinnix, J. A. Leach.

Arkansas—Charles Price.

Arkansas—A. G. Mosley, J. G. Kenan.

Arkansas—Edgecombe—Dr. A. B. Noble, W. S. Cobb.

Arkansas—Forsyth—J. M. Stafford.

Arkansas—Franklin—John E. Thomas.

Arkansas—Gaston—W. G. Morris.

Arkansas—Gates—W. P. Roberts.

Arkansas—Graham—votes with Cherokee.

Arkansas—Graves—Samuel J. Skinner, A. H. Williams.

Arkansas—Green—J. Q. A. Jackson.

Arkansas—Guilford—Lyndon Swan, J. N. Stiles.

Arkansas—Halifax—T. L. Enry, R. H. Smith, Jr.

Arkansas—Harrison—D. H. McLean.

Arkansas—Harrison—F. M. Davis.

Arkansas—Henderson—

Arkansas—Hertford—H. C. Maddy.

Arkansas—Hyde—William S. Carter.

Arkansas—Iredell—A. C. Sharpe, A. P. Gaither.

Arkansas—Jackson—G. W. Speake, Davis.

Arkansas—Johnston—H. J. Ryah, Dr. Farquard Smith.

Arkansas—Jones—

Arkansas—Lenoir—S. J. Sutton.

Arkansas—Lincoln—B. C. Cobb.

Arkansas—Macon—Dr. Rush.

Arkansas—Madison—H. A. Gudger.

Arkansas—Martin—N. B. Fagan.

Arkansas—McDowell—J. S. Brown.

Arkansas—Mecklenburg—W. E. Ardrey, R. A. Shotwell.

Arkansas—Mitchell—

Arkansas—Montgomery—J. G. McKinnon.

Arkansas—Moore—J. D. McIver.

Arkansas—Nash—T. P. Braswell.

Arkansas—New Hanover—J. W. Dunham, E. L. Pearce.

Arkansas—Norhampton—

Arkansas—Onslow—J. D. Shackelford.

Arkansas—Orange—Calvin E. Parrish, J. Knox Hughes.

Arkansas—Pamlico—

Arkansas—Pasquotank—R. K. Speed.

Arkansas—Pender—A. C. Ward.

Arkansas—Perquimans—T. H. Skinner.

Arkansas—Person—M. McGehee.

Arkansas—Pitt—Albert A. Moye, Samuel Quinton.

Arkansas—Polk—

Arkansas—Randolph—Dr. T. L. Winslow, Dr. Michael Fox.

Arkansas—Richmond—Robt. A. Johnson.

Arkansas—Robeson—Alfred Rowland, Murdock McRae.

Arkansas—Rockingham—James P. Dillard, Dr. P. M. Winchester.

Arkansas—Rowan—J. S. Henderson, J. S. McCubbin.

Arkansas—Rutherford—D. Bean.

Arkansas—Sampon—N. H. Fennell, J. A. Bizzell.

Arkansas—Stanley—J. E. Hartsell.

Arkansas—Stokes—Walter W. King.

Arkansas—Surr—J. F. Graves.

Arkansas—Swain—

Arkansas—Transylvania—

Arkansas—Tyrrell—Edward Ransome.

Arkansas—Union—William W. Walkup.

Arkansas—Wake—M. Whitley M. W. Page, J. W. Jones, H. C. Olive.

Arkansas—Warren—

Arkansas—Washington—

Arkansas—Watson—W. B. Council.

Arkansas—Wayne—Owen Peeler, Frank M. Aycock.

Arkansas—Wilkes—

Arkansas—Horton—Harris.

Arkansas—Wilson—R. W. Singletary.

Arkansas—Yadkin—J. A. Hampton.

Arkansas—Yancey—W. W. Profit.

THE PROGRESS OF THE ELECTION.

WILMINGTON, N. C. Nov. 7.—The election here is progressing very quietly. A large vote is cast, but both sides are working hard.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—Returns indicate that the Republicans have carried the State.

CHARLESTON, S. C. Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from various sections of the State show large Democratic gains everywhere as compared with the vote of two years ago. No Republican gains yet reported anywhere. The Democratic committee is jubilant. Republicans are driving to grant that Chamberlain's majority of '74 has been overcome.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a Democratic gain of 3,000 for Tilden over the vote of 1872.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the city give a